Last Thursday, May 16 marked the end of the school year for Wauneta-Palisade students. For students, the last day is filled with checking in books, cleaning out lockers and waiting for the day to end so summer can start. School will resume for students on Aug. 15, 2013. Alondra Almanza, right, greets her sister, preschooler Andrea Gabriella as she exits the shuttle bus from Palisade while Tiffany Harris, left, waits for her boys to exit the bus.
