

Women's Connection at Ogallala July 17

Written by Wauneta Breeze
Wednesday, 03 July 2013 20:01 -

---

How do you handle the “unexpected”? Do you try to ignore it or face it head on? Do you run the other way or do you attack the problem?

“How to Handle the Unexpected” is the topic of conversation for the Ogallala and Grant Women's Connection for July. Everyone is welcome to join the “Connection” on Wednesday, July 17 from 11:30 - 1:00 MT for a luncheon and program that is sure to answer some of those questions. The gathering will be at the Fuller Building at 202 East 3rd St., Ogallala, Neb. Tickets are available at the door, however reservations are necessary and are due by Saturday, July 13.

The special feature will be presented by Tena Most, a local realtor who will share “What Determines the Market Value of Your Home.”

The guest speaker will be Connie Beard from Bloomington, Ill. Connie is a world traveler and former educator and radio personality. She is a wife, mother and business woman. Her husband served in the military and she has two children in college and a “surprise” eighth grader that she home schools. Her life has been full of surprises and unexpected events and she will entertain with humor and insight while sharing some of her experiences handling the “unexpected.”

Necessary reservations can be made by calling Evelyn McGregor at 308-289-5801 or by email to evelynlmcgregor@gmail.com or call Wanda Poppe at 308-353-1715. You won't want to miss this one!

Come and bring a friend or two and prepare for the “Unexpected”!