

Harchelroad Motors holds open house, Corvette show

Written by Wauneta Breeze
Thursday, 24 October 2013 18:30 -

Imperial Republican Photos

Harchelroad Motors in Imperial held an open house Friday, Oct. 11 at their new auto body and restoration center on East Hwy. 6 in Imperial. People attending the open house were treated to a tour of the new facility, along with lunch. At right, Sandra Reinke gives a tour to Alice and Ray Lindekugel. Sid Harchelroad is shown visiting with a customer as well. On Saturday, Oct. 12 Harchelroads held their annual Chase County Corvette Classic. One of the highlights of the event included the unveiling of a 2014 Premier Edition C7 Corvette Stingray, shown above. There are only 500 of the cars being made. Harchelroads will receive four of the 500 units.

