

Beyers, Gardner join SWPPD team

Written by Wauneta Breeze
Wednesday, 08 January 2014 21:02 -

(Courtesy Photo)

Southwest Public Power District recently welcomed two new employees, Bryce Beyers and Karen Gardner.

Beyers is the new staking technician and is a graduate of South Dakota State University. He is originally from Minnesota and is engaged to be married this summer to his fiancé Aly Mattern.

Gardner will serve as the company's new billing clerk. She is from Wauneta and will be replacing Bonnie McBride, who is retiring in January.